MEHL'S COIN CIRCULAR

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE
AN OCCASIONAL ORDER

This Circular lists special offers, new issues, brief Numismatic comment and items of interest in connection with my business

B. MAX MEHL
NUMISMATIST
MEHL BUILDING
FORT WORTH TEXAS

Traveling—They Say is Broadening—
I Usually Find It "Flat'ning"

When I take a trip I usually, in self defense, take along a fair stock which I intend to sell, and most often do sell.

But invariably I return with more coins than I left with.

This is fortunate for you and me. You see, of the many kind and unkind things said about me, I never refute the accusation that I am as good buyer as I am seller. So when I buy right, I sell right. This must be true, as is evidenced by the "avalanche" of orders that greet every issue of this Numismatic Masterpiece (?).

Now, as to the offerings I place before you in THIS issue of the COIN CIRCULAR, I won't say anything about the quality—scarcity—price. But just a glance through these pages will show you some unusual offerings at what I almost dare call bargains. I will say, however, that I have never yet, in all my twenty-five years of coin experience, sold a coin, whether for a dollar or a thousand dollars, which I was "afraid to look in the face" again.

Want to tell you, however, that when you see anything you want here, just send for it. Don't write and ask if I still have it. As in the meantime, a cash order may come in, and orders with cash in 'em always get the right-o'-way.

Just can't resist the temptation to wind up with the reminder—Satisfaction guaranteed or your money back. Therefore "Mail it to Mehl."

Yours very cordially,

Bruce Mehl

Our First "Pioneer" Gold Coins

Bechtler Gold Coins—Carolina and Georgia

AT REAL BARGAIN-COUNTER PRICES

Have you ever seen these offered at these prices?
I doubt if you ever will again!

Through the purchase of several collections, I have an "abundance" of these rare first Private Gold Coins. And as I am of an unselfish nature, I am willing to pass them around to my less fortunate brothers who may not have any of these in their collections or even to those who want to "salt" away a few as an investment.

These prices are only good during the life-time of this number of the COIN CIRCULAR.

Carolina, $5.00, dated "August 1, 1834." About fine. Record for this variety over $50.00. $24.

Georgia, $2.50. Just as last. Very fine, with numerous nicks on both sides. $16.25.

THIS IS NO BARGAIN—

But it's the only one I have. It is a brilliant proof silver specimen in original case as issued. Oh! I almost forgot to say what it is. It is the so-called

Centennial Silver Dollar, 1876

Remember; brilliant proof, in original case; rare and in great demand. Price, $12.

If you are not too choicy about condition have another specimen in about good condition, also in original case. Price, $5.

AUCTION CORNER

Coin Auction Sales

Always have been, are and always will be the favorite indoor sport of all collectors.

And my next Sale will furnish you with plenty of opportunities for "sport."

Among the various consignments, it will contain the Malmgren Collection of Swedish coins: One of the best arranged and general collections of this interesting series that has ever been offered in this country.

Other consignments in this sale include a nice run of U. S., Pioneer gold, Colonials, etc. In short, it will be the usual "MEHL QUALITY SALE."

If you're not on my Auction "MEHLING LIST," you are missing the most fun of the coin game. It's easier to get on the list than to stay on. All you need to do to get on the list is simply to ask me to put you on. The only thing necessary for you to stay on the list is for you to simply send a bid or two now and then.

The success of my Sales, both to buyer and seller, is too well known for me to say anything about it here. Remember, a reputation cannot be built on what you are going to do. My auction reputation has been built on more than twenty years of successful numismatic experience. I invite your business, whether buying or selling, with my personal assurance that the results must be and will be mutually pleasant and profitable.

A Great Rarity at a "Great" (?) Price!

BRITISH-INDIAN PEACE MEDAL (1714)

Obverse, laureated bust of George I., legend: Rev., an Indian drawing a bow upon a deer. Size 41 mm. Betts No. 165, but struck in pewter instead of copper as listed by Betts. Condition, as good as they come, fine for piece.

As for beauty, it wouldn't take any prize in a beauty show, but for rarity and historical interest it's ALL THERE.

Price, $35. Seems high for a medal, but it's over two hundred years old, which brings down the cost to about seventeen cents a year.

PIONEER GOLD COINS!

Look closely, compare quality, price and past records of these rarities, then you'll not hesitate to sign on the "dotted line"—and "Mail it to Mehl."

While orders with cash in 'em are always given preference, remember my famous little ballad, "Satisfaction Guaranteed or Money Refunded."

Unusual Rarities of the American Colonial Coinage

Most of these are from one of the most famous of old American collections.

1795 Washington Confederatio Cent. Obverse, good. Rev., fair to very fair. Price, $850. The last auction record for this coin, in my sale of the Ten Eyck Collection, was $1050.00 for a very good specimen. This is the first time, in my nearly a quarter of a century in the coin business, to offer this coin at private sale. It is only the second specimen that I have ever handled.

"BUNGTOWNS"

Not a very "appetizing" name for coins, but I had nothing to do with the naming of them.

These are interesting tokens issued and circulated here and in England about 1750 to about 1800; size of large U. S. Cent.

Have a collection of twenty all different, when sold separately, retail at about 50c to $1.00 each.

Price for the entire collection, only $7.25.

(Yes, I'll pay the freight, but as these are scarce and offered cheap, first cash order gets it.)

FAMOUS COINS of the WORLD

The Dekadrachm of Syracuse

These magnificent coins were issued about B. C. 405-435, after the Athenian defeat, like the Demareteia after the battle of Himera. The arms in the exergue may be arms taken from the Athenians and offered as prizes in the Assinarian games which were established to commemorate the event. The dies were made by both the famous die sinkers of the times, Euaenetos and Kimon. There are only two specimens known without the engraver's name upon them. The Dekadrachm of Euaenetos seems to have been more generally admired than any other coin in antiquity and today they are recognized as the most magnificent coins of the world. The obverse is with the beautiful head of Persephone surrounded by Dolphins, the reverse, the famous Quadriga, with Nike flying and about to crown the Charioteer; below is the prize armor, helmet, thorax and greaves.

Ordinary specimens sell from $450.00 to $1,000.00, value governed, of course, by state of preservation, die varieties, etc.

Dandy Collection of Fine Store Cards for Sale Real Cheap

Here is another instance where my good intentions remained as "intention."

This Collection of American Store Cards deserves separate listing, and, what is more important to me, separate pricing. Haven't the time for it, so am offering the entire collection for about what probably half a dozen of some of these tokens would bring separately.

Here is the assortment as to States: California, 8; Georgia, 1; Illinois, 8; Kentucky, 3; Louisiana, 2; Maryland, 1; Massachusetts, 8; Michigan, 3; Mississippi, 2; New Mexico, 1; New York, 30; Oregon, 4; Ohio, 11; Pennsylvania, 15; Virginia, 1; Wisconsin, 4.

Now, don't confuse this Collection with a lot of odds and ends of ordinary cards. These are all of the scarcer and rare varieties, includes just a few Masonic Chapter Pennies and two or three Spiel Marks of the scarcer types. The condition will average very fine or better.

The Entire Collection of 110 Specimens goes for only $25 to the first cash order.

Collection of Scarce and Rare American Political Medals, Mostly Old, For Sale Cheap

An interesting Collection of Scarce American Political Medals, mostly all of early issues, including scarce Lincolns, Clay, Harrison, etc. Small to large size, and different metals. If purchased separately, piece by piece, would average at least 50c to 75c each. This entire Collection of fifty (50) goes to the first cash order at $10.

How Do You Feel About It?

From away out in Montana, an old-time collector comments on my last CIRCULAR as follows: "I'm not buying, but the prices in COIN CIRCULAR No. 8 make some of my purchases in former times look like throwing money to the birds. You surely offer bargains."
